To Whom It May Concern,

Again, this request, too, complied with 65 P.S. § 67.703. The RTKL does not require use of an agency-specific form as a condition of processing a written request.

As the Commonwealth Court has held, an agency’s refusal to process a written RTKL request unless submitted on an agency-created form constitutes a denial under the RTKL.

This submission is made without waiver of any rights, remedies, statutory deadlines, or appeal rights arising from the original January 10, 2026 submission.

As a person with a disability, I expressly reserve all rights under applicable state and federal disability-access and nondiscrimination laws.

Please confirm whether Fayette County will recognize January 10, 2026 as the operative receipt date for purposes of calculating statutory deadlines.

Respectfully,
Matthew David Dowling

Subject: Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law Request – Fayette County Recorder of Deeds

Dear Open Records Officer / Deputy Open Records Officer:

Please accept this email as a formal request under the Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law (65 P.S. §§ 67.101 et seq.).

Attached/Below is my written request for records relating to the Fayette County Recorder of Deeds Office for the period December 1, 2025 through January 9, 2026. This request is limited to official records as defined under the RTKL and includes a scope statement, detailed records requested, and relevant legal authority.

Please confirm receipt of this request and advise of any applicable fees or additional procedures required for fulfillment. I request records in electronic format (PDF or native electronic files) where available.

Thank you for your attention to this request. I look forward to your timely response within the statutory timeframe.

Respectfully,
Matthew David Dowling
